

International Women's Day 2021

In commemoration of International Women's Day, ICC and NSS, Government Institute of Science, Aurangabad jointly organized a significant event on 08/03/2021. The event featured prominent speakers, enlightening discussions, and active participation from various segments of our institute community.

Dr. Swati Peshwe, a distinguished expert in the field, was our esteemed Chief Speaker for the occasion. Dr. Peshwe eloquently articulated the importance of International Women's Day, substantiating her talk with a plethora of compelling examples. She emphasized the need for women to be well-informed about laws that safeguard their rights and protection. Dr. Peshwe also provided a comprehensive overview of these legal provisions, ensuring that the audience left with a deeper understanding of women's protection under the law.

Following Dr. Peshwe's enlightening address, Mrs. Vaishali Wadekar, narrated the work of successful women in various sectors and Ms. Vanashri Parsodkar engaged in a thoughtful discussion with our students. She explored topics such as the significance of International Women's Day, women's rights, workplace safety, and the mechanisms available through the Women's Cell in our institute to address grievances. Ms. Parsodkar's insights were both informative and empowering.

This distinguished program was presided over by Prof. R.A. Satpute, the Director of our institute, whose presence added prestige to the event.

Dr. J.J. Bhuktar skillfully conducted the program, ensuring its smooth flow and success. We extend our heartfelt appreciation to him for his excellent coordination.

Finally, Mr. A.B. Tikekar delivered a gracious vote of thanks, expressing gratitude to all participants and contributors who made this event possible.

It's worth noting that the program was a collaborative effort, jointly organized by the NSS unit and the Institute's Internal Complaints Committee (ICC). The enthusiastic participation of NSS volunteers, as well as teaching and non-teaching staff, significantly contributed to the event's success.

In conclusion, this International Women's Day celebration was a resounding success, fostering awareness, empowerment, and unity within our institute community. We look forward to continuing our efforts towards gender equality and women's rights in the future.

International Women's Day 2022

To commemorate International Women's Day on March 8, 2022, our institute orchestrated a noteworthy event that brought together various segments of our institute community. The occasion featured distinguished speakers, enlightening discussions, and active participation.

Dr. Manjusha Molawane, Member Secretary of the Maharashtra State Commission for Women, Government of Maharashtra, served as our esteemed Chief Speaker. Dr. Molawane, an eminent authority in the field, eloquently elucidated the significance of International Women's Day, substantiating her discourse with compelling examples. She underscored the imperative for women to possess comprehensive knowledge of laws safeguarding their rights and protection. Dr. Molawane provided a thorough overview of these legal provisions, ensuring the audience departed with a profound understanding of women's legal protection.

Dr. Swati Peshwe, Chairman of the Internal Complaints Committee (ICC), introduced the chief guest, and Dr. Suchita Bharambe, an ICC member, adeptly conducted the program.

In conclusion, Mr. A.G. Jadhav, Program Officer of NSS, extended a gracious vote of thanks to all the participants and contributors whose collective efforts made this event possible.

It's noteworthy that this program was a collaborative endeavor, jointly organized by the NSS unit and the Institute's Internal Complaints Committee (ICC). The enthusiastic participation of NSS volunteers, alongside teaching and non-teaching staff, significantly contributed to the event's resounding success.

In summary, this celebration of International Women's Day achieved its objectives by fostering awareness, empowerment, and unity within our institute community. We eagerly anticipate sustaining our commitment to gender equality and women's rights in the future.
